Depot on Saturday, June 7th, 1873, the President, George Z. French. Psu, in the chair. The meeting was an interesting one. There was manifested a laudable determination that the Society, as now reorganized, should be a success, and should move onward in its praiseworthy and much needed work. The subject of grasses in New Hanover county elicited protracted discussion, in which Messrs. Thomas Williams, L. D. Cherry, G. Z. Freuch, E. Porter and S. S. Satchwell participated. It was agreed that while our farmers and naval store producers and R.
